

RIDLEY ISLAND TRANSLOAD FACILITY

CT Terminals experience and innovation offers the industry extensive reach and reliability which can deliver a competitive advantage to your supply chain.

Why CT Terminals

Operated by Coast 2000 terminals, the Ridley Island Transload Facility provides shippers with easy access to the Port of Prince Rupert Gateway. With Class 1 railway access, secure lay down yard, and access to the regions only large scale Roll-on Roll-off Ramp (RO/RO), CT Terminals is well positioned to handle all types of cargo.

About Coast 2000

Coast 2000 is Western Canada's largest integrated logistics facility, linking cargo moved by rail, barge and truck to global markets in Vancouver and Prince Rupert. Our location in Richmond BC provides full depot services for all container carriers calling the Port of Vancouver and a multimodal transload facility.

Services

Transload lumber, breakbulk, steel, bulk and other dimensional project cargo. Adjustments, cargo storage and container drayage services also available.

Equipment

Container reach stacker, lift trucks, trackmobile, shunt trucks, mobile platform and SOLAS certified scale. Truck types – B-Train, container chassis, and flatbed. Railcar type – bulkhead flatcar, centerbeam, container, gondola, flatcar.

Site

18 Acres (RORO + Rail), Operates M-F and as required weekends/after hours.